Dear Sir/Madam

National review into model occupational health and safety laws

The Shopping Centre Council of Australia endorses the submission and recommendations made by the Property Council of Australia to this review.

The Shopping Centre Council represents the major owners and managers of shopping centres in Australia. Our members are: AMP Capital Investors, Brookfield Multiplex, Centro Properties Group, Colonial First State Property, Dexus Property Group, GPT Group, ISPT, Jen Retail Properties, Jones Lang LaSalle, Lend Lease Retail, Macquarie CountryWide Trust, McConaghy Group, McConaghy Properties, Mirvac, Perron Group, Precision Group, QIC, Savills, Stockland, Westfield Group and the Yu Feng Group.

Like the Property Council, we believe that a nationally consistent approach to occupational health and safety is essential to the delivery of safer work places. The existing nine different occupational health and safety regimes across the country does little to protect employees but creates enormous compliance problems for employers and property owners.

Yours sincerely
